This week's Gold Book Superstars are...

OAK Class

- Jack has brightened our classroom up this week with his solo singing! He has a great knowledge and repertoire of many modern songs and sings them with enthusiasm and confidence to the rest of the class. He sings with a smile on his face and clearly understands that music and singing can lift your spirits and make you feel happy. I really hope he joins our choir later this year in preparation for Voices Together and Burnley Sing!
- Eli has impressed us all with his improved concentration and attitude towards his learning. He listens so well in class and outs his hand up much more during class discussions – his confidence is soaring! As well as this, he achieved an incredible score in his recent science assessment! Keep up the good work Eli!

ELM Class

- Romey and Effie for their enthusiasm and teamwork this week.
- Florence for her incredible work in maths when adding four-digit numbers with column addition.

SYCAMORE Class

- Rosalina has loved exploring the tale of The Three Little Wolves and the Big, Bad Pig and has written some beautiful sentences to go with her learning. She has taken care with the vocabulary she has used to create effective expanded noun phrases, which have led to a wonderful description of the big bad pig! Well done Rosalina.

- Lilly has been an excellent role model to others in class this week. She is always first to show our learning behaviours and has guided other people in class when they are unsure of what they should do. Lilly has shown great pride in her work this week - well done Lilly!

WILLOW Class

- Lewis - amazing blending this week! He has shown excellent recall of his sounds and is beginning to identify these when reading words. Keep it up Lewis!
- Alacey-Mai - for always being a kind and caring member of our class. She is always keen to lend a helping hand to adults and children. She's a pleasure to have in our class.
