WEEKLY Roundup

In the news this week;

- Check out page 2 for news of upcoming events in school & the village for the Coronation.
- Eid Mubarak! Millions of Muslims all around the world will be celebrating Eid al-Fitr this week to mark the end of Ramadan. Eid al-Fitr means: 'festival of the breaking of the fast' and it is one of the biggest celebrations in the Islamic year. The date Eid falls on is decided by the cycle of the Moon and in 2023 it falls around 20-22 April. You can find out more via the link below.
- Don't forget about the exciting news we shared just before Easter about joining Learning Accord Multi-Academy Trust. You can see the letter, FAQs and information here.
- Cost of Living Crisis - Did you know that Morrisons have brought back their 'Ask for Henry' campaign? First launched in October 2022, the initiative will allow anyone who 'asks for Henry' at a Morrisons café from April 24 to May 7 to receive a hot, hearty jacket potato topped with Heinz Beans, for free. The free meals are available all day and are open to anyone over the two weeks, no questions asked, and Heinz hopes it will be of some help to anyone who needs or wants it this spring while the cost-of-living crisis continues to affect families up and down the country.
- Recently we have had a significant amount of vandalism in the school grounds out of school hours. This has been upsetting for our children and staff, not to mention how much money it costs to repair and replace damaged resources. We would appreciate your support in reminding all pupils and older siblings that no one is allowed in school grounds out of school hours and that the police will be patrolling the site regularly. Names of people caught on CCTV are shared with the police.

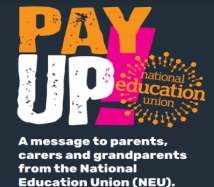

TEACHERS' STRIKES

Members of the NEU Teachers' union are planning to take part in strike action again on Thursday 27th April & Tuesday 2nd May.

We have already begun the risk assessments and have sent an email to all families explaining which classes will be open on each strike day. We will try to inform you as soon as possible if anything changes. You can find out more about the strikes by clicking the link in this graphic >

Colleagues who take action have the school's full support.

No one is allowed in school grounds out of school hours.

If you see anyone trespassing or causing damage please call the police.

Names of people caught on CCTV are shared with the police

Warning
Trespassing or causing nuisance on a school site can lead to a criminal conviction under Section 547 of the Education Act 1996

This week's Gold Book Superstars are....

Oak Class

- Avah - for listening well during maths activities
- Jack - for a superb attitude to SATs preparation
- Evie - for a brilliant week, working hard and having a good attitude

Elm Class

- Nathaniel - for settling in extremely well to Elm class and life at Luddenden
- Fred - for being a kind and caring friend

Sycamore Class

- Indy - for trying hard in all lessons this week, particularly in French.
- Jersey-Leigh - for being so enthusiastic with her reading and has shown a vast improvement.
- Charlie - for trying hard and taking on feedback to improve his work.

Willow Class

- Isobel – for a great enthusiasm in PE this week, being a team player and a great role model
- Sophia – for amazing phonics, super effort and using what she's learnt to read & write
- Reilly - for having such an amazing and modest attitude to work. He tries his best EVERY SINGLE TIME and could give Year 6 a run for their money with his handwriting!

Acorns

- Florence - for being totally amazing this week. She gave fantastic answers in Maths related to measuring and was really engaged in RE when learning about Muslim worship.
- Isabella - for learning how to zip up her coat independently.
- Samuel - for being fascinated in minibeasts while on a bug hunt.
- Autumn - for independently setting up and playing in a shape shop.

These children have all received special stickers.
