WEEKLY Roundup

In the news this week;

- Our amazing Year 6 said a very special goodbye with their tremendous end of year performance - Luddenden's Got Talent. It was sooooo Year 6 - clever, creative, ambitious, funny, a tiny bit crazy and you never quite knew what was going to happen next! See page 2 for photographs.
- Talking of goodbyes... we are waving very fond farewells to two wonderful members of staff. After 15 years, Christine Goodman is retiring from her role as Teaching Assistant. She has promised to stay involved with our school and will continue as a Governor and volunteer. Also, after over 7 years keeping our school spotless, Jana Jarosova is leaving for an exciting change of career. We wish them our heartfelt thanks for all they have done for our school and all the very best for the future!
- If any of you would be interested in joining our Cleaning team please get in touch
- We have been overwhelmed with all the thank yous, hugs, cards, gifts and kind words from you and your children this week - Thank you so much and thank you for sharing your wonderful children with us. It is our pleasure to teach and nurture them each day.
- The spectacular Summer Fair was a roaring success - as well as having a great time, we raised an enormous £583.57! Thank you! We're going to use this money to buy new art equipment for every class. Thanks to Nic and her team of helpers for organising such a super event.

Have a wonderful summer! We look forward to seeing you all on 5th September!
