Merry Christmas
AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR

WEEKLY Roundup

In the news this week;

- We've had a wonderfully busy week with Christmas jumper day, Christmas dinner, nativities and a very special visitor!
- Father Christmas popped in this morning to check in on who has been good all year - he gave every pupil in school a Christmas present! Thank you Father Christmas and all the elves that donated Selection Boxes.
- Acorns and Willow classes put on spectacular performances of the Wriggly Nativity! Beautiful singing and acting, and of course... lots of wriggling! They were brilliant!
- Our Christmas Fair was a roaring success and raised over £600 to spend on treats (including new Trophies!). We hope you all enjoyed it.
- Places available! We have had lots of interest in places at our school recently and are very much looking forward to welcoming new starters into Nursery, Willow, Sycamore and Oak class in January. If you know of anyone else who might be interested in joining our school family please tell them to get in touch.
- None of us can live up to those M&S Christmas adverts and we know this is a difficult time for many families. See page 4 for a message from Calder Food Support about a helping hand at Christmas

Have a wonderful break! We look forward to seeing you all in the New Year.
