- Willow class had a wonderful time on their trip to Hesketh Farm, cuddling guinea pigs, feeding lambs and having a tractor ride!
- Cost of Living Crisis - Did you know that Morrisons have brought back their 'Ask for Henry' campaign? First launched in October 2022, the initiative will allow anyone who 'asks for Henry' at a Morrisons café from April 24 to May 7 to receive a hot, hearty jacket potato topped with Heinz Beans, for free. The free meals are available all day and are open to anyone over the two weeks, no questions asked, and Heinz hopes it will be of some help to anyone who needs or wants it this spring while the cost-of-living crisis continues to affect families up and down the country.
- Recently we have had a significant amount of vandalism in the school grounds out of school hours. This has been upsetting for our children and staff, not to mention how much money it costs to repair and replace damaged resources. We would appreciate your support in reminding all pupils and older siblings that no one is allowed in school grounds out of school hours and that the police will be patrolling the site regularly. Names of people caught on CCTV are shared with the police.
- It's Polling Day on Thursday 4th May - School is the local polling station but will be open as usual.
- Don't forget we are closed on Monday for the bank Holiday - have a lovely long weekend.
