WEEKLY Roundup

In the news this week;

- WORLD BOOK DAY was a triumph! We all enjoyed being comfy & cosy in our pyjamas whilst taking part in all sorts of book-based activities. The highlight of the day was listening to the teachers' favourite stories whilst enjoying a delicious hot chocolate!
- Thank you for your patience and support finding alternative childcare on Tuesday's strike day. Further risk assessments will be carried out before the next two strike days and we will let you know what's happening as soon as possible.
- FREE FUN FAMILY LEARNING ACTIVITIES - 3:30pm Thursday 9th March. See p 2 for more details.

TEACHERS' STRIKES

Members of the NEU Teachers' union might be taking part in strike action again on Wednesday 15th & Thursday 16th March.

We will be carrying out risk assessments and make the decisions to open or not before each strike day. We will try to inform you as soon as possible, but these decisions may have to be taken at short notice. You can find out more about the strikes by clicking the link in this graphic >>>

Colleagues who take action have the school's full support.

A message to parents, carers and grandparents from the National Education Union (NEU).
